

Now & Then clues

Today I've a pointy glass roof, but so much has happened here! A long time ago I was a friary. Then I was a palace with a back to front name—from 'Mountjoy' to 'J .....'. What am I?

You might've walked past me without looking twice. I look like a fancy streetlamp. In medieval times a cross stood near my spot. It was named after a famous Irish saint! What am I?

Today visitors eat and sleep in me. I was a tower house and I still have the big fire inside! An important Carrickfergus family lived in me for many years. Their surname begins with D. What am I?

I was part of the Town Walls that kept Carrickfergus safe. There were four Gates, but today I'm the only one left. I point North. What am I?
