Women in Carrickfergus Gaol

CREATIVE ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMME

Women in the Archives will undertake an engagement programme to explore stories of women and children incarcerated in Carrickfergus Gaol.

Sign-up for a FREE 7 week workshop programme where you will:

- Find out about women and children held in the gaol, those sentenced to death and others transported to Tasmania between 1779 and 1850
- Visit museums and heritage sites, including the Linen Hall Library, Public Record Office of Northern Ireland and Kilmainham Gaol in Dublin
- Turn your research into a creative output and make it available for future generations

Spaces are limited & programme requires participation throughout. All ages, genders and backgrounds welcome.

Programme is delivered in partnership with Carrickfergus & District Historical Society, Carrickfergus Museum and Carrickfergus Townscape Heritage Initiative.

VENUES: Sessions will take place across Carrickfergus, Belfast and Dublin

DATES: Programme begins Wednesday 21st August, 7pm-9pm
All transport and catering costs are included throughout.

SIGN UP: Book online at www.makingthefuture.eu/news

For more information contact Jason Burke at Linen Hall Library:
J.Burke@linenhall.com or 028 9032 1707